DETAILED ACTION

1. Upon reconsideration, previous requirement for restriction/election is hereby withdrawn and all of present claims 25-48 were examined on merit for this Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 38, 45 and 46 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 38 recites the limitation "said material" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Claim 45 recites the limitation "the hydrocarbon spacer group" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Claim 46 recites the limitation "the hydrocarbon spacer group" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 36-40 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Effenberger (US 2003/0035967 A1).

In Example 1, Effenberger coats a silicon surface with the following alkene compounds by bringing together the silicon surface and the compounds such as 1b and 1c in a glass cuvette and irradiating for 20-24 hours in an inert gas atmosphere:

1a; n = 15; R = CH₃

c; n = 16; R =

By this procedure, a self-assembled monolayer was formed. Effenberger also teaches that a metallic surface containing Al can be used (see [0020]). Present claim 36 calls for a surface-modified layer system comprising a substrate having a surface and a self-assembled monolayer anchored to at least part of the surface, wherein the SAM is comprised by an aryl or rigid alicyclic moiety species in a substantially stable structural form (present claim 36 is a product-by-process claim). Thus, the end product of Effenberger's Example 1 teaches present claims 36-40 and 42.

6. Claims 36-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rozsnyai et al ("Selective Electrochemical Deposition of Polyaniline via Photopatterning of a Monolayer-Modified Substrate", Journal of American Chemical Society, 1994, 116(3), pg.5993-5994).

The end product of Rozsnyai's Scheme I shows a gold (Au) substrate having a surface and a self-assembled monolayer anchored to the surface by a thiol moiety, and the SAM comprises aryl moieties (some of which are substituted by amino group) as well as C11 alkyl group. Since present claim 36 calls for a surface-modified layer system comprising a substrate having a surface and a self-assembled monolayer anchored to at least part of the surface, wherein the SAM is comprised by an aryl or rigid alicyclic moiety species in a substantially stable structural form (present claim 36 is a product-by-process claim), Rozsnyai teaches present inventions of claims 36-44.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 47 and 48 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. None of the cited prior arts teaches or suggests present SAM compound of claims 47 and 48.
8. Claims 25-35 are allowed. None of the cited prior arts teaches or suggests present step of providing a SAM which is polymorphic having at least first and second structural forms and then thermally treating the SAM so as to change the SAM from its first structural form to the second structural form as presently required in claim 25.
